

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Though we need to weep your loss, you dwell in that safe place in our hearts where no storm or night or pain can reach you. . . . May you continue to inspire us: To enter each day with a generous heart. To serve the call of courage and love until we see your beautiful face again in that land where there is no separation, where all tears will be wiped from our mind, and where we will never lose you again.

Benedictus, John O'Donohue

All Saints'/Music Sunday | November 7, 2021 10 a.m.

Welcome

We are delighted you have joined House of Hope for worship.

Our caring and active community welcomes you.

We extend the hospitality of Christ to all.

Regarding Masks for In-Person Worship.

Please know in light of the evolving situation regarding the Delta variant guidelines, we now strongly encourage all those who attend worship to wear a mask. In this fluid situation with changing national, state and local protocols, we will continue to monitor developments and discern how best to respond while keeping in mind the safety of church staff and those attending worship.

Please continue to maintain physical distance from other worshippers not in your household, as children under the age of 12 are not yet able to be vaccinated.

Deacons will provide offering plates at the sanctuary doors.

Our worship service is also livestreamed and can be accessed on the home page of our website (hohchurch.org) and on our Facebook page (The House of Hope Presbyterian Church.)

Music Sunday: Franz Schubert's Mass in G

The House of Hope Motet Choir presents, for the first time in their history, Franz Schubert's Mass in G. Composed in 1815 when Schubert was just 18, it was written during one of his most fruitful years of composing. Aside from the Mass, he composed over 140 of his famed solo songs, and over 20,000 bars of music in the same year, while studying with Antonio Salieri. Though inspired by the sacred works of Mozart and Haydn, Schubert's Mass in G is quintessentially Romantic, driven by lovely melodies and surprise harmonic turns. It is no wonder that this has become his most beloved choral work some 200+ years after its composition!

Featuring: The House of Hope Motet Choir; Chamber Orchestra; Matthew Culloton, Conductor; Aaron David Miller, Organ; Linh Kauffman, Soprano; Tyler Berg, Tenor; Bill Sales, Baritone; Timothy Bruett, Baritone.

After the service, please join us for a time of fellowship in the Kirk Parlour.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

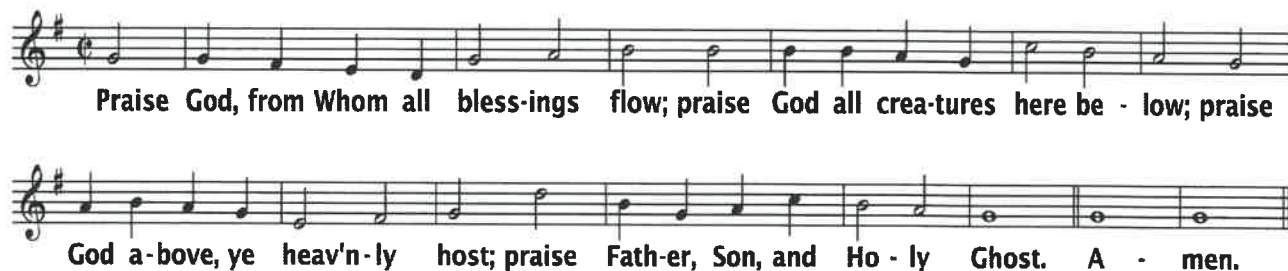

Eternal God, although we are the communion of saints, we are also a circle of sinners. We cling to death, hiding in tombs that we have carved out of fear and stubbornness. We fail to unbind each other from oppression, poverty, and abuse. You lay a feast before us, but we fill ourselves with selfishness and wonder why we are hungry. We are convinced that our best days are behind us, not believing that you are making all things new. Forgive us, we pray, and show us the light that we yearn to see. Let us out of the cave and into your everlasting way, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

+ Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all bless-ings flow; praise God all crea-tures here be - low; praise God a-bove, ye heav'n - ly host; praise Fath-er, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A - men.

THE RESPONSE TO GOD

+ Hymn 171

ST. COLUMBA

+ Affirmation of Faith

Leader:

All Saints' Day is a time to rejoice in all who through the ages have faithfully served the Lord. The day reminds us that we are part of one continuing, living communion of saints. It is a time to claim our kinship with the "glorious company of apostles ... the noble fellowship of prophets." It is a time to express our gratitude for all who in ages of darkness kept the faith, for those who have taken the gospel to the ends of the earth, for prophetic voices who have called the church to be faithful in life and service, for all who have witnessed to God's justice and peace in every nation.

All:

To rejoice with all the faithful of every generation expands our awareness of a great company of witnesses above and around us like a cloud. It lifts us out of a preoccupation with our own immediate situation and the discouragements of the present. In the knowledge that others have persevered, we are encouraged to endure against all odds. Reminded that God was with the faithful of the past, we are reassured that God is with us today, moving us and all creation toward God's end in time. In this context, it is appropriate for a congregation on All Saints' Sunday to commemorate the lives of those who died during the previous year.

Remembering the Saints (See names on page 6)

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Festival of HOPE

“Hope is the last thing ever lost.” The words of this Italian proverb inspire us to scan our horizons to detect places of emerging hope, especially in challenging times. Festival of Hope, our online conference, invites us to find hope in the landscapes of the refugee crisis, faith and science, the writings of William James, racial injustice, the sacred within us, and the American identity.

These conversations will be available on our website, hohchurch.org on November 13.

Becca Stevens, a “CNN Hero,” is a social entrepreneur, author, priest, and founder of Thistle Farms. Her new book Practically Divine is about experiencing the sacred in our lives.

David Grant is a Twin Cities based writer, playwright, screenwriter, and winner of a Regional Emmy Award for Best Original Drama. He does frequent public speaking and workshops on racial equity and justice.

Jess McHugh is a writer and researcher whose work has appeared in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, and TIME. Her book, Americanon, was published this year.

Dr. John Kaag is an award-winning author and Chair of Philosophy at UMass Lowell. He will speak on his new book, Sick Souls, Healthy Minds: How William James Can Save Your Life.

Jessica Goudeau is author of After the Last Border: Two Families and the Story of Refuge in America, named a New York Times Editors’ Choice book. She has written for The New York Times and The Atlantic.

Greg Cootsona is a professor, author and noted speaker on the intersection between science and faith. He has written for The Wall Street Journal and has been interviewed by CNN and the BBC.

I. Kyrie

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

II. Gloria

Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis.

Laudamus te. Benedicimus te.

Adoramus te. Glorificamus te.

Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.

Domine Deus, Rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens.

Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe.

Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris.

Qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram.

Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis.

Quoniam tu solus Sanctus. Tu solus Dominus.

Tu solus Altissimus, Jesu Christe.

Cum Sancto Spiritu, in gloria Dei Patris.

Amen.

Glory be to God on high,

and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee,

we worship thee, we glorify thee,

we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world,

receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;

thou only art most high, O Christ,

with the Holy Ghost, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

III. Credo

Credo in unum Deum.

Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium.

Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum,

Filium Dei unigenitum,

Et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula.

Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine,

Deum verum de Deo vero.

Genitum, non factum, consubstantialem Patri:

per quem omnia facta sunt.

Qui propter nos homines et propter nostram salutem

descendit de caelis.

Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto

ex Maria Virgine: Et homo factus est.

Crucifixus etiam pro nobis sub Pontio Pilato:

passus, et sepultus est.

Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum scripturas.

Et ascendit in caelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris.

Et iterum venturus est

cum gloria judicare vivos et mortuos:

Cujus regni non erit finis.

Et in Spiritum sanctum Dominum,

et vivificantem:

Qui ex Patre, Filioque procedit.

Qui cum Patre, et Filio simul adoratur,

et conglorificatur:

Qui locutus est per Prophetas.

Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam Ecclesiam.

Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum.

Et expecto resurrectionem mortuorum

Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

I believe in one God,

the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

Only begotten Son of God,

Begotten of his Father before all worlds.

God of God, light of light,

True God of true God.

Begotten, not made, being made one with the Father:

by whom all things were made.

Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven.

And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary: And was made man.

He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate:

suffered, and was buried.

And the third day He rose again, according to the scriptures.

And ascended to heaven, sitting at the right hand of the Father

And He shall come again

with glory to judge the living and the dead:

His kingdom shall have no end.

And (I believe in) the Holy Ghost, Lord

and giver of life:

Who proceedeth from the Father and Son.

Who with the Father and Son

together is worshipped and glorified:

Who spake by the Prophets.

And in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

I acknowledge one baptism

for the remission of sins.

And I look for the resurrection of the dead

And the life of the world to come. Amen.

IV. Sanctus

About The Motet Choir

Under the direction of Dr. Matthew Culloton, The Motet Choir offers weekly musical enhancement to the church community. The Motet Choir sings the Introit and two anthems during the worship service and collaborates with orchestral ensembles on extended choral works three to five times each year.

The Motet Choir and House of Hope members have commissioned and premiered dozens of new works over the years by composers like Stephen Paulus, James MacMillan, Anthony Piccolo, Gerald Near, and Frank Ferko. The most successful commissioned project in the choir's history was Stephen Paulus' church opera, "The Three Hermits," a libretto by Michael Dennis Browne based on a story by Tolstoy. From this opera came Paulus' anthem Pilgrims' Hymn, one of the most recognizable a cappella works of the 20th century. The work was sung at the funerals of both President Ronald Reagan and President Gerald Ford, and it is widely recorded by choirs around the world.

The Motet Choir welcomes new members any time. Rehearsals are Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m., and the ensemble meets on Sunday mornings to rehearse prior to the service. Interested singers should have previous musical experience, though it is just fine if there is a little rust on the vocal cords! Contact Choirmaster Matthew Culloton at MatthewC@hohchurch.org for more information. All members of the choir must prove vaccination against COVID-19, and are asked to be tested at various points of the season.
