

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Eucharist is a remembering of the meal Jesus shared with his disciples. It is a meal of communion we share with each other. It is a little foretaste of what God wants for all humanity in the future God has promised. And it is also a way we urgently proclaim, energetically embody, enthusiastically describe in action God's intimacy with us, God's humanity." - Wes D. Avram

Maundy Thursday | April 6, 2023 7 p.m.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

"I give you a new commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you."

You have loved us unfailingly, unceasingly, and we have rejoiced in that love.

Forgive us. Cover us with your mercy and lead us once again in your ways.

(The prayer will continue with our silent confessions.)

+ Affirmation of Faith — The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

When the lights come up, people may leave the sanctuary in reverent silence, or are welcome to remain for quiet meditation.

The Office of Tenebrae is adapted from an early fourth century ceremony in solemn observance of the Lord's Supper. The expression Office of Tenebrae is derived from the Latin, and means the enactment or drama of shadows and darkness. The gradual extinguishing of the lights is symbolic of the flight of the disciples, the approach of the dark hate of Jesus' enemies, and the passion of our Lord.

The Choral Responses for the Office of Tenebrae are by Healey Willan.

Offering — There are four ways to give an offering:

- In-Person.        Offering plates will be available at the Great Hall doors.
- Website.         On the homepage, click "Support House of Hope", then click on "Make a Gift"
- Mail.              Mail a check to 797 Summit Ave. Saint Paul, MN 55105
- QR Code.        Please see insert.

The single candle near the pulpit is our Peace Candle, lighted each day as a reminder of the ongoing need for our prayers for peace in the world.

Christians and Jews: People of God

Holy Week presents a challenge to Christian communities in its understanding of language. The reference to the “Jews” is especially prevalent in the Gospel of John, and has the power to fuel the impression that Jews as a people are responsible for the death of Jesus. As a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA) we recognize that anti-Judaism is an affront and a contradiction to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and affirm the following statement contained in the Presbyterian Study Paper “Christians and Jews: People of God”:

The relationship between Christian faith and Judaism is unique, foundational, and enduring. The New Testament bears consistent witness to this relationship – the mercy of God in Jesus Christ embraces both Jew and Gentile; it does not abandon Jews in favor of Gentiles or forsake Jews in favor of the church. Supersessionism, the belief that God’s covenant with the church has replaced God’s covenant with Israel, and that the church has supplanted the Jewish people, is contrary to the core witness of the New Testament and is not supported by the mainstream of the Reformed tradition. Unfavorable New Testament references to “the Jews” do not refer to all Jews of the first century, and certainly not of the twenty-first. While the New Testament contains numerous references to God’s “new covenant” in Christ, these cannot be taken to mean that “new” cancels God’s previous covenants.
